

Frequently Asked Questions

What can I expect from a PSAC course?

We use teaching methods that are participatory, transformative, which promote inclusion, encourage reflection and dialogue, as well as a mix of techniques to respond to various learning styles. Our courses are participant centered.

When are courses offered?

Our core courses are scheduled on a Saturday/Sunday as well as a Friday/Saturday format.

Do I have to pay to attend?

No. In fact, we reimburse your expenses. Here is what we pay:

Loss of salary, and/or vacation leave you have incurred to attend the course;

A $50 per day allowance is provided to members who attend a course on Saturday and Sunday. Members from communities who are approved to travel for an educational event, receive a travel per diem, as per PSAC Policy.

Additional family care costs, if applicable, in accordance with the PSAC Family Care Policy.

Where are courses held?

In Whitehorse, courses are held in the Lucy Jackson Training Room of the YEU building.

In communities, courses are held at locations best suited for the course and will be announced.

How do I register?

You MUST either register online, under your chosen course(s) at: <http://psacnorth.com/events/course-listings>

OR by filling out a Basic Course Application Form, found online or available by request to: dalleys@psac.com
