

WATER: COMMONS OR COMMODITY?

Whose water is it?

Concerned about access to clean water? Worried about the rights and independence of your community? Wondering about the influence of international trade and the growing impacts of industry? Join us for a discussion on the impacts of trade agreements and industry on the rights of local communities.

Maude Barlow, international activist and Chair-Person of the Council of Canadians will speak about water: is it a commons or a commodity?

Whitehorse YT
Shipyards Park
Friday, May 28, 2010
5:30 to 10:30 pm
FREE - ALL WELCOME
Please come dressed for the weather

Panel Discussion with Maude Barlow at 7:00pm

See attachment for more info.

 More_Info_-_Community_gathering_for_the_WATER_COMMONS.doc